The spring series of the San Diego County Library Acoustic Showcase continues in May with five concerts taking place throughout the month! The Acoustic Showcase series offers a wonderful variety of some of San Diego's very best singer/songwriters, folk music performers and story tellers.

These concerts are FREE to the community.

The following are upcoming concerts for May.

Christopher Dale
Tuesday, May 7 - 6:30 PM - Rancho San Diego Branch

Described as John Mayer and James Taylor meet Tom Petty at a Barenaked Ladies concert, Christopher Dale mixes his many influences together to form one uniquely catchy artist.

Old Town Road
Wednesday, May 8 - 6:00 PM - Encinitas Branch

Enjoy bluegrass in the library with Old Town Road, a North San Diego County-based band that combines interesting arrangements with two, three, and four part vocal harmonies.

Nathan James & Friends
Saturday, May 11 - 2:00 PM - Fallbrook Branch Centennial Celebration

Whether you catch Nathan James as his true one-man-band, playing guitar and stomping out time on his custom suitcase drum set while singing and blowing harmonica, or leading his new trio, you are sure to be moved and impressed with the unique energy and soul that he possesses.

John Foltz
Saturday, May 11 - 2:00 PM - Poway Branch

John Foltz maintains a working repertoire of over 3,000 cover songs as well as a wealth of original material, and is constantly striving to learn and write new material to keep in the ever-changing flow of the musical world.

John Bosley
Sunday, May 12 - 2:00 PM - El Cajon Branch

John Bosley has been a songwriter a good many years now, accompanying himself on guitar and finding a rich companionship with the audience that is extremely gratifying.
